Feb. 9.—A search of 24 hours has failed to uncover a single clue to the identity of the ghouls who some time during the past four days descented the mausoleum in the Eric cemetery of the late Congressman William L. An investigation of the vault had shown conclusively that the ghouls were persons familiar with the work undertaken. When the copper plates in front of the crypts were torn away a sharp hooked instrument was run inth the crypt and the name plates were pulled from the caskets. This has led to the belief that the robbers were looking for the casket of Mrs. McCullom. Besides her body there were five others in the vault and the caskets of all had been tampered with. The head of a Pittsburg detective agency and a number of assistants arrived here tonight. They visited the home of Charles H. Strong, a son-inlaw of Mr. Scott, and later inspected the mausoleum. No statement was forthcoming, however.

It is reported tonight that the Strong family is contemplating the announcement of a large reward for the recovery of Mrs. McCullom's body. During the day the cemetery officials offered a reward of $1,000. There was the monthly business meeting of the Haile club on Thursday evening at which it was decided to serve a regular supper every night. The same committees hold over on the reception and entertainment and the benefit whist, it was decided, will be held the last day of the month. The question of admitting younger members was discussed, but no decision was reached, while the gift of music from a friend was accepted with appreciation. Plans for a dance were discussed, but the date and other details will be decided later.

CANADIAN LEADERS DIVIDED. Parliament Ready to Pass Reciprocity Measure—Conservatives Stick to British Markets.

Albert A. Sparks.

With his late home, No. 49 Coit street, filled with sorrowing relatives and friends, a number being present from out of town, the funeral of Albert A. Sparks was conducted at 2.30 o'clock Thursday afternoon by Rav. P. C. Wright, pastor of the Central Baptist church. There were many beautiful flowers and floral forms, silent testimonials to the esteem in which the deceased was held, and including a Gates Ajar from The Bulletin company and employes, with the cluding a Gates Ajar from The Bulletin company and employes, with the figures "30," the telegraphic code word for Good Night, used by press associations, and a handsome form from the Typographical union marked N. T. U., No. 100. Employes of The Bulletin attended in a body, the office being closed between the hours of two and four.

Two solos were impressively rendered by Mrs. Frederick S. Young, It is Well With My Soul and Nearer, My God, to Thee. The bearers were John Trankia, Eugene F. Sullivan, Charles L. Tracy and Frank V. Smith, fellow employes of the deceased. Burlal was in Yantic cemetery, where a committal service was read by Rev. Mr. Wright, Funeral Director Gager had charge of the arrangements.

Frank Hancox. Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 8.—The Canadian house today began the debate on the reciprocity agreement with the United States. The great interest in the measure was indicated by galleries crowded with spectators and an unusually large attendance of members. More interest than emotion was shown. Little applause was heard, but the closest attention was given to the words of the speakers and there was evidently the keenest desire to hear and weigh all the views expressed.

The features of the discussion were a declaration by Finance Minister Fleiding that parliament should put through the measure without a delay with a provision that it should come into force as soon as the United States had taken favorable action; and a declaration for the opposition by Mr. Borden, the conservative leader, that after a forty years struggle in development Canada had reached a position where reciprocity and increased trade with the United States were no longer desirable, but she should continue to seek the British markets with her surplus products. Frank Hancox.

The funeral of Frank Hancox was held from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hancox, of Mystic, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. A. C. Jones of St. Mark's Episcopal church conducted the services at the house, there being a large gathering of friends and relatives present. The deceased was a veteran of the Civil war and belonged to the Mystic company, Twenty-sixth regiment, Connecticut volunteers. Besides his parents there survive eight brothers and sisters, George Hancox. Everett A. Hancox and Nettie P. Mceiney, all of Mystic, Mary V. FOR METHODIST CHURCH. DO YOU ENJOY YOUR MESIS!

The burning question to you is, "Are you getting out of life all the pleasure and the health you are entitled to?" If not, why not?

No matter whether every organ and member of your body is in a sound state of health and strength, if your stomach is in any way disordered, you are not going to be "yourself." You are going to be a worried, out-of-sorts, nervous or sullen individual, whose actions will reflect your condition inside, and people will naturally avoid you.

If your stomach can not digest your food, what will? Where's the relief? Where's the cure?
Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the relief and cure. Why? Dacause, as all stomach troubles arise from indigestion and because one ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is able to thoroughly and completely digest 3,000 grains of any kind of food, doesn't it stand to reason that these little Dyspepsia Tablets are going to digest all the food and whatever food you put into your stomach? Science nowadays can digest food without having to use the stomach for it. And you put into your stomach? Science nowadays can digest food without having to use the stomach for it. And Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the result of this scientific discovery. They digest, and digest thoroughly and well, anything and everything you eat.

So, if your stomach refuses to work or can't work, and you suffer from eructations, bloat, brash, fermentation, billousness, sour stomach, heartburn, irritation, indigestion, or dyspepsia of whatever form, just take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and see the difference. It doesn't cost you much to prove it. Then you can eat all you want, what you want, whenever you want, if you use these tablets, and you can look the whole world in the face with a beaming eye and you will have a cheerful spirit, a pleasant face, a vigorous body and a clear mind and memory and everything will look and taste delicious to you. That's life.
